The wireless internet no longer works. Charles will verify it's dead.

Gene McPherson is looking for volunteers for the Big Mick on 21st of June.

Gene McPherson asked about the weather spotter class. Apparently, according to Gene, Susan was not planning on coming, however gene reports she will come if she is invited. Scott Rausch had the understanding she was not going to be doing a class here again. Gene asked the secretary to remind us in March to invite her back next spring.
